

SPARC's 12th Annual Pancake Breakfast

Saturday, March 30th

8:00 – 11:30am

Summit High School Cafeteria

Join Lincoln-Hubbard principal, Matt Carlin, this year's MC of Pancake Breakfast, and dozens of amazingly talented Summit students for a Saturday morning that will razzle, dazzle and delight! You'll see musical numbers, solos, monologues, duo acts and dance routines, all while enjoying a delicious hot breakfast.

In the line-up already are selections from Lincoln's Lion King, Jefferson's Haphazardly Ever After, Franklin's Willy Wonka, LCJMS's High School Musical and SHS's Pippin.

In addition to the entertainment, there will be a 50/50 raffle, raffles to win free tuition to Perfect Performance, 4 tickets to Dear Evan Hanson, and more. There will also be baskets full of kid-friendly toys and games and family-friendly gift certificates and gadgets to win.

We promise you'll leave with a skip in your step and a melody in your mind and what better way to start your weekend?

Tickets sold at the door. $15 for adults, $10 for students and seniors, $50 for families of 4 or more. Performers and kids 3 and under eat free.

All proceeds go toward the performing arts programs in all of Summit's public schools.
